transform! & Rosa Luxemburg Foundation Workshop – Programme

The real existing EU and the challenge of a left investment policy

June 6 – 7, Espace Niemeyer, Place du Colonel Fabien, Paris

Day 1 – Monday

13:00 Welcoming Address and Introduction

Roland Kulke (Brussels office of the Rosa Luxemburg Foundation)
Maxime Benatouil (transform! europe)

13:30–15:00 Industrial Policy in Europe – What room for manoeuvre does the current legal framework within the EU offer for a progressive industrial policy?

Mario Pianta (University of Urbino)

15:00–15:30 coffee break

15:30–17:00 Collective Discussion

17:00–17:30 Public Tools of Intervention in the Economy: Public Ownership, Concept of "House Providing", Sectorial Public Investments; The Experience of Privatization in Italy

Matteo Gaddi (Punto Rosso)

17:30–18:30 – Collective Discussion

Dinner

Day 2 – Tuesday

09:00 – 11:00 EU Periphery and the Need for a Productive Transformation

Javier Navascués (University of Sevilla): Productive Reconstruction in the EU Southern Periphery
Nadia Garbellini (Punto Rosso): The Structure of European Industry
Vladimir Cvijanovic (Group 22 Think Tank): The Croatian Case
Aimilia Koukouma (Nicos Poulantzas Institute): The Greek Case
A Representative of the Warsaw office of the RLS (tbc): The Polish Case

11:00–12:00 Collective Discussion

12:00–13:00 Lunch Break

13:00–14:00 The Investment Problem in the EU: What Alternative to oppose to the EU Action Plan towards a Capital Markets Union?

Dominique Plihon (ATTAC France) What Alternative to oppose to the EU Action Plan towards a Capital Markets Union?
Peter Wahl (WEED) The Casino in Trouble – The EU Financial Sector under Conditions of Quantitative Easing and Zero Interest Rates
Stephanie Schulte (RMGV)(tbc) Cooperative Banks – Potentialities and Limits

14:00–15:00 Collective Discussion

15:00–15:30 Coffee Break

15:30–16:30 Final Discussion – The European Left and the Challenge of Planning, Targeting and Channelling Private and Public Investments